23 Case No. 3:21-cv-00430-MMD-CLB

Plaintiffs,

24 JOINT STIPULATION ON BRIEFING
SCHEDULE

25 v.
26 Marty Walsh, Secretary of the United States
27 Department of Labor,
28 Defendant.

Plaintiffs seek judicial review of an administrative decision by Defendant. The parties agree that the claim raised in this action may be adjudicated by the Court through cross-motions for summary judgment and submission of the Defendant's Administrative Record regarding the agency action being challenged. Accordingly, pursuant to Local Rule 16-1(c)(1), which

1 provides that actions for review on an administrative record shall be governed by the entry of a
2 briefing schedule, the parties stipulate as follows:

3       I.      The Administrative Record

4       The parties have conferred and agree as to the following schedule concerning the 5       Administrative Record. Defendant will provide Plaintiffs' counsel a copy of the Certified
6       Administrative Record maintained by Defendant by January 28, 2022. Defendant will also file
7       the Certified Administrative Record with the Court by that date. The parties agree that because 8       this matter will be adjudicated pursuant to the instant record, no discovery will be required in 9       this case.

10       II.     Briefing Schedule

11       Pursuant to Local Rule 16-1(c)(1), the parties agree to the following briefing schedule:

12       February 25, 2022:                  Plaintiffs file their Motion for Summary Judgment
13       March 25, 2022:                          Defendant files its combined Response and Motion to 14    Dismiss/Cross-Motion for Summary Judgment. The 15    deadline to respond to Plaintiffs' Complaint by Answer or 16    Motion will also be extended to this date.
17       April 15, 2022:                          Plaintiffs file their combined Response and Reply
18       May 6, 2022:                                  Defendant files its Reply

19
20       Respectfully submitted this 19th day of January 2022.
